

Director of Campus Ministry

University United Methodist Church, a vibrant, intergenerational and progressive faith community located next to University of Texas at Austin, is seeking a Director of Campus Ministries. Primary responsibilities of this part-time role include working with laity, staff, college students and faculty to plan and carry out activities and programs in a growing campus ministry. The director will build connections between the UUMC and UT communities and plan ministry and service opportunities around topics such as food insecurity, diversity and social justice. The director also will collaborate with other campus ministries serving the UT area. Successful candidates for this part-time position will be high-energy individuals with a heart for the spiritual who have demonstrated their abilities to be creative, collaborative, innovative and service-oriented. Candidates may apply by sending a letter of interest, resume and names of references to info@uumc.org. Review of applications will begin July 7.
